- b) Hong Kong International Airport (HKG);
 - Option 1: 45 minutes by HK Airport Direct Bus - Travellers are required to disembark at the Macao immigration hall & check luggage through security. Please check luggage restrictions for bus travel.
 - Option 2 (Best Option): 45 minutes by Private Transfer - Travellers stay inside the car and will drive through an immigration counter. Travellers are NOT required to go through immigration hall security.

Transport

From Hong Kong:

Ferry

High-speed ferries run between Hong Kong and Macao. The journey is for one hour. Departure information and details about boarding and disembarkation points can be found on the operators' websites.

- TurboJET www.turbojet.com.hk
- Cotai Water Jet hk.cotaiwaterjet.com

Coach

It is now possible for travellers to go from Hong Kong to Macao by road thanks to the opening of the Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macao Bridge. It takes around 40 minutes on a port shuttle bus or 1 hour and 45 minutes on a direct bus from the city centre. Passengers can change to public bus services at the disembarkation point of the port shuttle bus. Direct services run between the city centre of Hong Kong and hotels in Taipa, offering a convenient and efficient option. Passengers arriving at Hong Kong International Airport can take advantage of the convenient bridge connection, allowing for hassle-free travel to Macao, by taking the 40-minute transfer coach service at the SkyPier Terminal.

By road (direct bus service)

Visitors can enter Macao via the Border Gate, Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macao Bridge, Macao Port Zone of Hengqin Port, or Qingmao Port. The customs clearance hours at the Border Gate open from 6am to 1am, and the Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macao Bridge immigration station operates daily from 8am to 10pm. Macao Port Zone of Hengqin Port, and Qingmao Port are open 24 hours.

Helicopter

The operator offers four trips from Thursdays to Mondays running between Shenzhen and Macao, and the journey lasts 15 minutes.

- Sky Shuttle www.skyshuttlevacation.com

From other countries and areas:

Flight

Macao International Airport in Taipa runs round the clock and is well connected to many cities in Asia.

- Macau International Airport www.macao-airport.com

City Transport

Transport in Macao is served mainly by buses. Various routes take travellers to different areas. They run frequently and cost little. No change is given, so it is advisable to have small change ready. A convenient alternative is to use smartcard Macau Pass. The Macao Light Rapid Transit contains 15 stops. Connecting the Taipa Ferry Terminal and Barra, the 16.3-kilometre route traverses through the Macao International Airport and several luxury resorts and hotels at Taipa and extends to Hengqin.
